

Chroma Suns - Electronic Press Kit (EPK)

Biography:

Chroma Suns is a project led by singer-songwriter Adam Hain, that captivates audiences with their eclectic influences and hallucinogenic lyrics. Formed in Los Angeles and now based in San Luis Obispo, CA, the project is known for its immersive soundscapes that blend dreamy melodies with unique instrumentation. Their music reflects a need for autonomy from the constraints of time, with a sound that envelops the isolated voice of past tense and preoccupation. Chroma Suns has returned with two EPs, "Charge" and "Start" reanimate the original ideas that launched the project. These EPs represents a significant step in a musical exploration, offering a reflective and innovative take on the shoegaze genre. Chroma Suns continues to explore themes of autonomy and timelessness, inviting listeners to connect with their music on an immersive and transcendent level.
